I am pleased to be writing this letter to be shared with my peers who are looking for fun and engaging family entertainment for their venues. BAM Percussion, represented by Robin Klinger Entertainment, is an outstanding production worthy of your consideration.

In February of 2018 we had the good fortune of presenting BAM Percussion on our Family Theatre Series and witnessed first-hand the cleverness, fun and truly enjoyable performance that resonated with all age levels. Their performance of The Blue Barrel Show delivered on every aspect of the quality family entertainment we had hoped for. They did not let us down.

In addition to a solid stage performance, "the guys" went out of their way to advance the show cleanly and once here, worked closely with us, not as artist and presenter, but as partners in making sure the show would be received in the most positive way from load-in to load-out. Their willingness immediately following the performance to spend nearly an hour in our lobby signing autographs and having their photos taken with their young fans was a bonus. It was indeed a win-win-win scenario for all involved.

Simply put BAM Percussion delivers a show that keeps children on the edge of their seats. I highly encourage you to give BAM Percussion strong consideration as you look for quality family entertainment. Your audience will thank you.

With sincere best wishes,

Bruce C. MacPherson
